SENATOR PROUD: I beleive that would be a suggestion certainly worth trying, if it doesn't work we can do something else, I don't see anything wrong with it, giving it a try.

PRESIDENT: While we are waiting for that list to be finished, the Chair would like to take the prerogative here of introducing to the body this morning, Senator Frank Lewis wife Linda and his two daughters Trudy and Terry are here today and Frank I don't know where they are seated, would they stand up and be recognized, or are they, oh there they are under the south balcony, let's give them a hand. Trudy and Terry we are glad you are here today, keep an eye on your father for us, will you. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: That we forget about the list and start at the head of general file and those who have any objections they automatically pass over.

PRESIDENT: Thank you Senator Carpenter, I was distracted when he made the suggestion there for a moment, Senator Proud.

SENATOR PROUD: Yes Mr. President that is correct, I suppose the list will be distributed, but we don't need to pay any attention to it, unless somebody wants to go to that list, we'll just start right at the top of general file, anything that's, anybody has any objection you just object and we'll pass on to the next bill.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Do we have resolutions on the desk?

CLERK: Yes Mr. President. LR #20 (read).
